FOR PRESIDENT,
 WILLIAM HOWARD TAFT.

We now want to hear from Marse Henry on "The Man on Horseback."

The lower house of congress spent an hour or two Saturday in kicking Mr. BRYAN's dog around. An enjoyable time was had.—Chicago Tribune.

From the standpoint of a Republican there is no other possible candidate for the nomination than TAFT. The notion of a third term for ROOSEVELT as candidate of the Republican party is absurd. The regulars certainly can not afford to pay any heed to him, and LA FOLLETTE's angry statement of Saturday to the effect that he and his organization will be in the contest to the end against ROOSEVELT, must make it clear that the chief result of the Colonel's boom will be to throw the progressives into hopeless and laughable confusion.

EVERY great statesman in the history of this country, from WASHINGTON and JEFFERSON and HAMILTON to LINCOLN and CLEVELAND and McKINLEY, believed in free government under such constitutional limitations as would protect the rights of the minority from the temporary decisions of the majority.

It has never been the idea that the constitutional limitations should stand in the way of the fixed opinions or desires of a majority of the people. They were planned by the fathers of the republic merely to act as a brake on the too hasty transformation of temporary popular feeling into law. When a majority of the people of this country have really made up their minds on any question, they have always had their way—and they will continue so to have their way as long as our present institutions endure.

The recall of judicial decisions on constitutional questions suggested by Mr. ROOSEVELT in his Columbus speech, would at one stroke wipe away all constitutional limitations within the States. It would make the will of the majority immediately supreme. The adoption of such a provision would provide a short cut to revolution. If a constitution can be recalled on a moment's notice by a bare majority of votes, what's the use of having a constitution at all?

MR. BRYAN awoke in New York one morning a number of years ago to discover that his proposal for the Government ownership of railroads had put a serious blight on his political fortunes. It would not be altogether surprising if his recall of decisions plan rendered Mr. ROOSEVELT a like service.—Times Star.

FREE REMEDY HELPS CHILDREN

Many a mother has learned of a way of avoiding sickness in her family, especially among the children, by the use of a free sample bottle of the famous laxative, Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. This offer of the doctor's to send a free sample bottle has been responded to by thousands of women in all parts of America.

Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is a truly wonderful laxative and especially adapted to the needs of babies and children because it is pleasant to taste and no child will refuse it. It is mild and never grips. It is all a child's remedy should be, it is a good laxative for the family because it is effective. It is not dynamic like powerful cathartics, but it is given to children in circumstances.

Nine times out of ten when a child complains and you don't know exactly what is the matter with it, it needs a laxative—its bowels are constipated. Syrup Pepsin will correct the trouble, tone up the child and soon it will be well again—wonderful results have been secured with Syrup Pepsin over night.

You can buy it of any druggist at fifty cents or a dollar a bottle, the latter being the family size, but you are invited to make a test of it first at the doctor's expense. Send him a letter today and he will send you a free sample bottle direct to your home. Then when satisfied buy it of your favorite druggist.

For the free sample address him: Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 641 Caldwell Building, Monticello, Ill.

ANYHOW! "Dee-lighted," again, but only for a short time.

The Colonel will soon be yelling to TAFT: "You Gotta Quit Kickin My Hat Around!"

Washington wouldn't.
 Grant couldn't.
 Roosevelt sha'n't.
 —N. Y. Evening Post.

On the 4th of March next I shall have served three and a half years and this three and a half years constitute my first term. The wise custom which limits the President to two terms regards the substance and not the form, and under no circumstances will I be a candidate for or accept another nomination.—THEODORE ROOSEVELT, Nov. 4th 1904.

In place of GEORGE WASHINGTON ROOSEVELT let it read ANNANIAS ROOSEVELT.

GR! But it's going to be great to be Governor in Kentucky when the present General Assembly has worked its will and wended its ways.

A prison commission, a banking commission for sure, a road commission and a public utilities commission, mayhap, all of his own choosing and own faith, each with pie-a-plenty and patronage prodigious to dispense. In a government of the people, for the people and by the people, could one man ask that one man control go farther?—Louisville Times.

Foolish Philosophy.

THINK well of yourself, of course but don't make a hog of yourself in that particular.

Certain questions have been discussed thousands of years, although the answers are known absolutely.

We are all rendered uncomfortable unnecessarily by those dismal persons who habitually View With Alarm.

People are always selfish, if not always fair and intelligent, and when they hesitate for years about accepting a doctrine said to be for their good, they hesitate because they fear maybe it isn't.

Criticism loses much of its force because it is usually either untrue, exaggerated, ill-natured or comes from jealous rivals.

When I write for the papers I do not desire to say anything that will cause "Citizen" or "Taxpayer" to come back at me with a card. But I have always wanted to express the opinion that citizens are extremely liberal in the rates they propose for street railway, gas and water companies.

Don't you know people who, in spite of all your charity, don't seem to try very hard?

There is no waste of time worse than playing cards, unless you play for stakes; if a tin horn gambler sits in the game, you are apt to waste money as well as time.—E. J. Howe.

HE HEARD NOTHING.

Neodesha (Kas.) Sun.
 A tall man from the timbered hills went into a Fredonia store the other day to do some trading. Among the desired purchases was a shirtwaist for his wife. Entering the store he was directed to the shirtwaist department, and made his way known to the young lady who was in charge.

"What bust?" asked the saleslady.

The man looked at her inquiringly a moment and then said:

"I dunno, I didn't hear nothing."

NO ONE STRONGER THAN HIS STOMACH.

The celebrated Dr. Abernethy of London was firmly of the opinion that disorders of the stomach were the most prolific source of human ailments in general. A recent medical writer says: "every feeling, emotion and affection reports at the stomach (through the system of nerves) and the stomach is affected accordingly. It is the vital center of the body." He continues, "so we may be said to live (through) the stomach." He goes on to show that the stomach is the vital center of the body. For weak stomachs and the consequent indigestion or dyspepsia, and the multitude of various diseases which result therefrom, no medicine can be better suited as a curative agent than

Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery.

"Several months ago I suffered from a severe pain right under the breast-bone," writes Mrs. G. M. MURKIN, of Corona, Calif. "I had suffered from it, off and on, for several years. I also suffered from heart-burn, did not know what was the matter with me. I tried several medicines but they did me no good. Finally, I was told it was my liver. I did not dare to eat as it made me worse. Whenever I swallowed anything it seemed that I would faint—it hurt so. I grew very thin and weak from not eating. Was told to take Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. I took the first dose, I could eat a little without pain and grew strong fast. To-day I am strong and well and can do a big day's work with ease. Can eat everything and have put on flesh wonderfully. I will say to all sufferers write to Dr. Pierce. He has my undying gratitude."

LAFAYETTE'S VISIT TO MAYSVILLE

He Was Accompanied By the Governor of Ohio—Incidents of the Visit

On Saturday, May 21st, 1825, General Lafayette arrived at Maysville on the steamboat Herald, accompanied by the Governor of Ohio.

He was met at the foot of Fish street by the Committee of Reception, Major Charles Pelham, Rev. John T. Elgar, Captain Maurice Langhorne, Johnson Armstrong, James Morrison, W. B. Phillips, William Murphy, John Sumrell, John Armstrong and Captain Stephen Lee of Maysville, and John Chambers, Francis Taylor and Dr. J. N. Tallafiero of Washington.

Major Pelham of the Revolutionary War delivered the address of welcome, and the procession formed in the following order:

Assistant Marshal, Light Infantry, Committee of Arrangements, General Lafayette and Hon. Jeremiah Morrow, Governor of Ohio, in a barouche; Colonel G. W. Lafayette, Major Pelham and Lafayette's Secretary in an open carriage, officers and soldiers of the Revolution, citizens and strangers.

The procession passed through the principal streets and drew up at Major Langhorne's hotel, where a sumptuous repast was served, after which the procession escorted the distinguished visitor to the steamer, which proceeded up the river.

Among other veterans of the Revolution who were present at this oration was Julius Levi, the old Marketmaster of Maysville, who served under General Lafayette at Brandywine and lost an eye at Blufford's defeat.

The above article was given THE LEDGER by Mrs. Frank Bromley and is a timely matter of historic importance. There is no imprint on the clipping, but it looks like The Bulletin's type. Thanks to Mrs. Bromley.

MRS. STEVENS RECOVERS

After Years of Suffering. Tells How Her Health Was Regained.

Waurika, Okla.—"I had female troubles for seven years, was all run down, and so nervous I could not do anything. The doctors treated me for different things but did me no good. I got so bad that I could not sleep day or night. While in this condition I read of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and began its use and wrote to you for special advice. In a short time I had regained my health and am now strong and well."

—Mrs. SALLIE STEVENS, R.F.D., No. 2, Comanche, Okla.

Another Woman Recovers.
 Newton, N.H.—"For five years I suffered from female weakness and dragging down pains. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has restored my health and the pains are gone."

—Mrs. F. A. PEASLEE, R.F.D., Box 88.

Because your case is a difficult one, doctors having done you no good, do not continue to suffer without giving Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial. It surely has remedied many cases of female ills, such as inflammation, ulceration, displacements, tumors, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, and it may be exactly what you need.

If you want special advice write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential) Lynn, Mass. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.

Special Request.

"In answering advertisements appearing in this paper, or when buying goods from a merchant whose advertisement appears in this paper, our readers are especially requested to state that the advertisement in THE ENQUIRER induced them to buy goods, and it will be greatly appreciated by both the advertiser and the Editor."
